On Saturday night, Aug. 17, the Hawaiian Historical Society, also known as the "Ka Nui Aupuni," will give an entertainment at the Opera House for the benefit of the Children's Hospital Fund. This is for a very worthy charity and every one is asked to do something. The program will include a number of tableaux illustrating ancient Hawaii.

The Jiyu Shimbuin, one of the Japanese papers here in town, will send the Assistant Editor, Mr. Mikami, to Vancouver and Seattle to see the exact conditions there relative to Japanese labor. The number of conflicting reports concerning the Japanese on the coast is the cause of this special mission. Editor Mikami has been connected with the paper for over five years and on his return will continue his duties. It is possible that he will sail on the Aorangi leaving here about the 21st.

Walter G. Smith, editor of the Advertiser, left on the Alameda yesterday for a short vacation, the first one away from the islands he has taken in eight years. He will visit his son at Stanford and meet his daughter, who is coming west, en route to Honolulu, the latter part of this month. As Mr. Smith's health is somewhat impaired it is not likely that he will take part in the discussion at Mohok. During his absence the editorial conduct of the Advertiser will be in the hands of Daniel Logan.

SNARK GOING

Jean Fenelon, having discarded his shore collar and tie and flicked his Turkish cigarette overboard, will at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon cast off the stern lines that hold Jack London's ketch Snark to the Bishop wharf, while Chief Johnson, also having shed his handsman's jacket and striped shirt, will perform a similar function for the forward moorings, Captain Warren, wearing his uniform cap, meanwhile picking out a place on deck from which he can issue orders, probably about the cockpit. It will be watch-below for Mr. and Mrs. Jack London and the Japanese roustabout, the latter handling the implements in the miniature galley in anticipation of dinner.

If it doesn't rain more than an inch an hour, there will be a large and assorted crowd on the wharf to see the Snark get away, for the marvelous little craft may never again see Honolulu.

She is away for around the world via the Goodbye's place on the island of Hawaii, thence to Christmas Island, thence nobody at present knows whither.

A refrigerator has been installed aboard the Snark to hold the ice which the Snark makes herself. Ice will be very welcome as the boat goes farther south.

Captain Warren stated this morning that the Snark would sail at 4:30 today, rain or shine. Her auxiliary engine is in good condition and no further trouble is anticipated on this score.

The Snark arrived here May 20 from San Francisco, going to Pearl Harbor. She came to Honolulu from Pearl Harbor on August 1.

BAR PAYS RESPECTS

fourteen years ago, it had seemed that he would be returned to civil life within a few years, but circumstances had conspired since which kept him there until now he has spent nearly a third of his life in a judicial capacity.

"These years have been eventful and busy ones. They have been years which have witnessed important changes; they have been years which have witnessed great increase of work for the courts of the Territory; they have been years in which many weighty questions have arisen; and they have seen numerous changes in the personnel of the courts.

"It goes without saying that I have made mistakes, but I feel that my work has been conscientious, and what I have done I have done with a view to the best. To my mind the work on the appellate bench is very nearly ideal. It is the work of a student, and has for its object the weighing and analyzing of human ideas and motives, with the high purpose of justice as a guide in all things.

"The work has often called for many wearying hours, but has been lightened by the assistance of able associates, and the help of the members of the Bar.

"I have always been jealous of the good name of the Court, which in the 60 years of its existence I hold to have made the brightest record of any department in the Territory."

The Chief Justice congratulated his associates, and Mr. Ballou in the work which they have to perform, and also the members of the Bar and the community on the high character and ability of the men who are to preside over the highest court in the Territory.

Attorney A. G. M. Robertson, in behalf of the Bar Association, then presented resolutions of regret adopted by that body at the resignation of Judge Frear, which follow:

"WHEREAS, Honorable Walter F. Frear, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, is about to retire from the position which he has occupied since the 5th day of July, 1900;

"RESOLVED, That the members of the bar of this Court, desiring to record their tribute to the unfailing courtesy, sturdy, honest, and marked ability with which Chief Justice Frear has performed the duties of his high office, hereby express their sincere regret at the loss of the services of a good and upright judge whose great patience, unrelenting diligence, and unswerving devotion to duty, has at all times commanded their appreciation and respect;

"RESOLVED FURTHER, That the members of this Bar tender to Judge Frear their cordial congratulations upon his appointment to the office of Governor of Hawaii, wishing him the fullest measure of success in his new office;

"RESOLVED ALSO, That a copy of these resolutions be handed to Chief Justice Frear."

Robertson, in presenting the resolutions, spoke briefly, expressing the esteem in which the retiring Chief Justice is held by the Bar, and congratulating him on his appointment as Governor. He moved that the resolutions be adopted.
